

Point to each picture at the top of the page and help the child read its name. Explain that those names rhyme because they both have the -ock sound at the end. Then help the child complete the rest of the page.

-ock Rhymes clock

sock

Color the one that rhymes with clock.

Color the two that have rhyming names.

